Hospital Auxiliary Purchases Material To Drape 63 Windows, Has Other Plans

The Everglades Memorial Hospital Auxiliary has purchased through Mrs. C. A. Kolstad enough material to make drapes for 63 windows in the new Everglades Memorial Hospital building, according to a report by Mrs. Curtis Chase, chairman of the drapes project committee, at the April meeting of the Auxiliary held Tuesday night of last week in the fellowship hall of the Pahokee First Baptist Church, with Mrs. Earl Maxson, president, presiding.

The Auxiliary is soliciting and accepting with gratitude donations from the public to help pay for the drapes. Contributions sent by mail should be addressed to Mrs. F. H. Potete, Auxiliary treasurer, 357 Kismet, Pahokee.

Mrs. James H. Miller, sewing committee chairman, reported the making of six pajamas for use by hospital patients during the month, and asked for more volunteers to assist in the making of hospital window drapes.

Mrs. Richard K. Ames displayed a sketch of the proposed new visitation chart to be used in the new hospital building.

Upon recommendation of the executive board, the group voted to sponsor vending machines for dispensing cold drinks, coffee, candy and the like in the new hospital building; also a counter for the sale of sundry items, and a cart for room-to-room service — all of which is subject to approval by the Northwestern Palm Beach County Public Hospital Board.

Mrs. Frank Rosenberg, assignment chairman, distributed at the meeting copies of the work schedule for the pink ladies at the hospital for the coming six weeks.

It was voted to suspend regular Auxiliary meetings until the new hospital building, now nearing completion on South Barfield Highway, is ready for occupancy late this summer or early fall.

Honor Mother At Sunday Service

At the Canal Point Baptist church this coming Sunday morning the pastor will, during the Worship Hour, present to the Mother with the most children present in the service a gift from the church. While at the same time the youngest mother present in the service will be honored.

To complete the period, the mother having lived the longest will be presented a token of love by the church. All mothers with their entire families, living at home, present in the worship hour will be recognized.

The Pastor will speak concerning "A Tribute to Motherhood" to complete the service of Mother's day.

Richard Hurt, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hurt, 155 Banyan Ave., who is a sophomore at Pahokee High School, suffered a severe multiple fracture of right leg while playing football during the physical education period at the school Monday at 10:30 a. m. The bone was broken in three places between the knee and the ankle. He is now recuperating at his home, but expects to return to school Monday.

More School Buses Needed Next Fall

Though next year's desegregation program will mean a more economic use of the County School Board's fleet of 147 busses, the Superintendent and board members were informed that next year's needs indicate that 12 new busses may have to be bought.

Eight of the proposed new busses would be to replace busses which have been operating in excess of 10 years, it was explained. The remaining four new busses would be additions, and bring the size of the fleet up to 151.

The four additional busses will take care of the projected annual school population increases. Each year, the number of children attending Palm Beach County's public schools increases between 3,000 and 4,000.

The matter will be placed on a subsequent school board meeting agenda.

Youth Week Starts At Baptist Church

Intermediate and Junior pupils studied the manuals for their respective unions, taught by the Pastor and the Training Union Director, Raymond G. Martin.

The entire group gathered Wednesday evening for a planning and fellowship supper in the dining hall of the church. As well as studying each evening the groups viewed filmstrips on the most effective working methods.

FLAN BEACH PARTY

The Junior High Methodist Youth Fellowship group at the Pahokee First Methodist Church is planning a beach party and picnic at Riviera Beach this coming Saturday, May 8. Accompanying the young people as chaperones will be Mrs. Glenn Brower, counselor, Mrs. Hugh Branch, Mrs. John A. Briley and perhaps others.

Politics, which preoccupied the attention of Pahokee voters earlier this week, was rampant at Pahokee High School on Thursday of last week as the student body was bombarded with vote-getting pleas and speeches prior to the election of a new Student Council for the 1965-66 School Year, with the district candidates making a clean sweep.

The primary election resulted in Glenda Crews defeating Michael Sanders for the Student Council presidency, and Linda Lane winning over Timothy Gills for the office of vice president. Jessie Ann Sheffield, Signora Briley and Deborah Parrish ran for the office of secretary, with Jessie Ann winning over Signora in the runoff election. There were four candidates for the office of treasurer: Mary Jane Jell, Patricia Lewis, Mary Willis and Lois Adams. Mary Jane was elected in the runoff with Patricia.

Tommy Branch, Student Council president for the current school year, introduced the candidates and their campaign managers, the managers including Jimmy Holman, Faye Elliott, Willola Tyson, Billy Sheffield, Fred ... Tommy McElhenry, Linda Reid, Jo Young, John Parker, Brenda Alderman and Bonnie Rayburn. Keith Aldridge served as chairman of the election committee.

In the other race for the city council B. F. Hurt swamped his opponent James T. (Tiny) Rogers by the lopsided vote of 637 to 197. Mr. Hurt has already assumed his place on the council.

The race for police chief was the quietest in many a year. The incumbent Guy Wood garnered 579 votes while his opponent Grady Chancellor tallied only 329.

Dr. Jess Moody Is Author Of Book

Dr. Jess Moody, of West Palm Beach, heralded as one of the generation's most acknowledged pulpit orators, has turned his considerable talents to writing.

In the same graphic style that punctuates his sermons, Dr. Moody has written "You Can't Lose For Winning," a fast-moving book on what really goes on inside a church.

The book published by Zondervan Press of Grand Rapids, Michigan, will be introduced at an autograph party May 8 from 11:30 a. m. to 2 p. m. in the Sunshine Shoppe in the First Street Arcade in downtown West Palm Beach.

Dr. Moody, pastor of the First Baptist Church, West Palm Beach, and president of the 17,000-member Southern Baptist Pastors Conference said that all proceeds from the sale of the book through May 15 will go to the Baptist College building fund campaign. The book deals with the real church—the people who make up the congregation.

Dr. Moody said, "We considered the title, 'Life In A Boiler Factory' but settled on 'You Can't Lose For Winning.'"

"My idea in writing the book," Dr. Moody said, "was to show that the ministry is human, that the people who are members of the church are human."

The book is not a serious tome, but one that is light-hearted. It has Dr. Moody's personal brand of charm, wit and humor.

Although the book is about the ministry, it is not for ministers alone. "I want everyone, of every denomination, to become familiar with the working of the church, regardless of whether it is Baptist, Methodist, Presbyterian or any other faith."

"In this way we can all become servants of our God and become better Christians," the West Palm Beach minister said.

Although this is his first book, Dr. Moody has contributed to several other books and currently is writing a second full-length book.

Dr. Moody has written his book from a wealth of experience in preaching in the world's most outstanding churches. He has delivered sermons in Spurgeon's Metropolitan Tabernacle, London; the American Church in Paris; Bethlehem church in Oslo; the First Baptist Church in Rome; People's Church in Toronto, Canada; First Baptist Church in Dallas and Calvary Baptist Church in New York City.

Rev. and Mrs. Guthrie Colvard attended a concert by the Stetson University Choir at DeLand Tuesday evening.

J. Pat Elliott of Gainesville visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess M. Elliott, and family here Saturday, and was accompanied home by his daughter, Myrle Lynne, who had been the guest of her grandparents in Pahokee for three weeks.

Citrus, Potatoes Wearing New Label

TALLAHASSEE — Citrus and new potatoes, wearing the Sun-FLAVOR Seal of Quality denoting top-grade Florida agriculture products, were marketed in 19 states and Canada during the first two and one-half months since the program was activated.

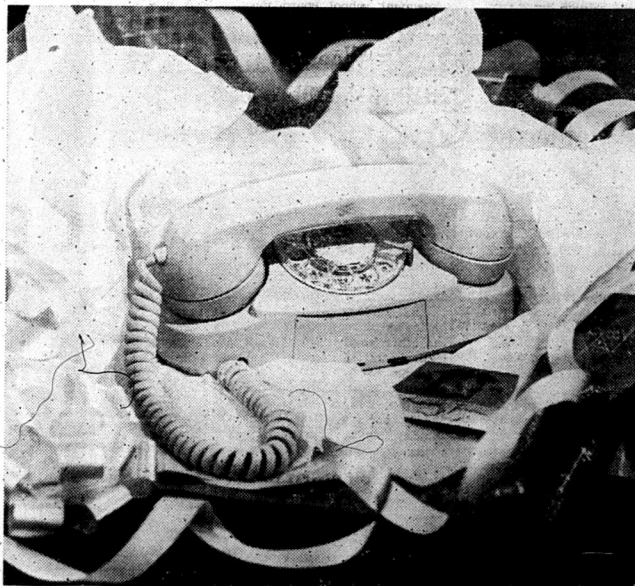

The 115 shipments represented an encouraging beginning for the Florida quality seal, but Florida Commissioner of Agriculture Doyle Conner anticipates a substantial increase later this spring.

Between Jan. 13 and March 30, Sun-FLAVOR licensed shippers moved 74,993 units under the seal. The shipments included grapefruit, oranges, temple oranges and potatoes.

Founders Banquet By The Sororities

The identities of the "Girls of the Year" of the four Pahokee Chapters of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority were revealed at the Beta Sigma Phi annual Founders Day Banquet held at Holiday Inn in Belle Glade Friday night, with Barbara Shirley acting as toastmaster. The honorees, selected annually by each chapter on the basis of service to the sorority and the community through chapter activities, for this year are Eva Spooner, Xi Alpha Mu; Norma Aldridge, Xi Beta Tau; Rita Faye Hooks, Beta Omicron; and Dorothy Buckner, Phi Gamma Nu. Each was presented with a silver tray as a gift of appreciation from her chapter.

The 34th Founders Day message by Walter W. Ross was delivered to the four chapters by Ruth Wedgworth of Belle Glade, international honorary member of Beta Sigma Phi. Following the message, Evelyn Lair read a letter from Mr. Ross to Mrs. Wedgworth in which he congratulated her for being chosen to read the message and announce his new theme for the year.

The annual reports were given by Kathryn Cunningham, who related in verse the activities during the past year of the four chapters, symbolically comparing the four, from the eldest group, Xi Alpha Mu, to the youngest, Phi Gamma Nu, to four generations of human life and endeavor.

The prize-winning song, "Invitation," was sung in a duet rendition by Barbara Shirley and Marian Hutton, with Rita Faye Hooks at the piano.

The program was opened with the group singing of the National Anthem, followed by the Beta Sigma Phi opening ritual. After the welcome address by Barbara Shirley, there was a round-robin of introductions of guests by members and as they were introduced each guest was presented with a single yellow rose corsage, accenting the sorority colors of gold and black. Billie Shirley was in charge of the making of these distinctive corsages.

Barbara Shirley gave the Founders Day Pledge and prior to the closing ritual, she thanked all who had helped in any way to make the 34th Founders Day observance by the four Pahokee chapters such a successful event.

New $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest on U.S. Savings Bonds

The Treasury explains why the new ones you buy and the ones you own now are better than ever

Q: How does the new $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest rate benefit me?

A: With Series E Bonds, the rate turns $18.75 into $25.00 fourteen months faster than the old rate. Your savings increase faster, because your Bonds mature in just 7 years, 9 months.

With Series H Bonds, the 10-year maturity period stays the same but more interest is paid you each six months. With both E and H Bonds the new rate works out to $2\frac{1}{4}\%$ for the first year and a half; then a guaranteed 4% each year to maturity.

Q: When did the new rate become effective?

A: June 1, 1959.

Q: Does the new rate change the Bonds I bought before June 1, 1959?

A: All older E and H Bonds pay more now—an extra $\frac{1}{4}\%$ from now on, when held to maturity. The increase takes effect in the first full interest period after June 1.

Q: Will the Bonds I own automatically earn their new rate?

A: Yes. You don't need to do a thing—just hold on to your Bonds.

Q: When my H Bonds mature, will they keep on earning interest?

A: Yes. An automatic 10-year extension privilege went into effect along with the new interest rate. This means your H Bonds will automatically keep earning interest after maturity.

Q: With the new interest rate, should I cash in my old Bonds and buy new ones?

A: No. The automatic $\frac{1}{4}\%$ increase makes it unnecessary—and in almost every case it is to your advantage to retain your present Bonds.

Q: How are series H Bonds different from series E Bonds?

A: The chief difference is this: You buy H Bonds at full face value and the interest is paid by Treasury check every six months for the life of the Bond. You buy E Bonds at 75% of face value and the interest accumulates to maturity. H Bonds provide income for living expenses, while E Bonds build a nest egg for the future. That's why many retired people hold H Bonds and families saving for, say, a child's education, buy E Bonds.

Q: In what denominations can I buy series E and series H Bonds?

A: E Bonds: $25 (cost $18.75), $50 (cost $37.50), $100 (cost $75.00), $200 (cost $150.00), $500 (cost $375.00), $1,000 (cost $750.00), $10,000 (cost $7,500.00).

H Bonds: $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000. They are priced at face value.

Q: How safe are U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Savings Bonds are an absolutely riskless way to save. The United States Government guarantees the cash value of your Bonds will not drop, that it can only grow.

Q: What if my Bonds should be lost, stolen or destroyed?

A: You can't lose. Every Bond purchased is recorded by the Treasury. If anything happens to your Bonds they are replaced—free.

Q: Where can I buy Bonds?

A: Buy E Bonds at any bank—it takes only a few minutes. Buy them automatically through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. This Plan means you can have any amount you name automatically deducted every payday. The Bonds you buy by installments are delivered to you automatically, too. Your bank will take your order for H Bonds.

Q: How do I help strengthen America's peace power when I buy U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Peace costs money—money for military strength and for science. And money saved by individuals helps keep our economy sound.

YOU SAVE MORE THAN MONEY WITH U. S. SAVINGS BONDS

A message from the Treasury of a free people

How to speak out for freedom today

Free men have never gone in much for silence. Even before the first thirteen States became United States, men were speaking for freedom loud and clear.

Today Americans speak out for freedom many ways—in Congress, in local government, in neighborhood activities. Some speak out for freedom in other languages, in other lands. And millions of Americans speak out for freedom every time they buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

Every Savings Bond you buy is an investment in freedom. While you're saving money for your own family's future, you're helping Uncle Sam tend to the business of keeping men free today.

Perhaps you don't speak out for freedom in the same tone of voice when you buy a Bond as Patrick Henry did in his famous speech. But you speak every bit as surely. And every bit as proudly.

Why not speak out for freedom now? Buy Bonds at the bank or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

Keep freedom in your future with

Witnesses Hear Supervisor S. E. States

Speaking at a three-day religious assembly of Jehovah's witnesses, Joseph Saia, witness supervisor for the Southeastern States, said that the moral breakdown is earth-wide and affects all nations.

Miles P. Crum, presiding minister of the Belle Glade congregation, said that delegates from the group were in attendance Sunday evening at the Riviera Beach High School to hear Mr. Saia's talk which was the highlight of the Florida Circuit No. 8 assembly.

Mr. Saia said many people laugh at Bible predictions and prophecies relating to our times. He said the thought that the Bible predicted such a moral climate in our generation is absurd to many higher critics.

"Certainly the critical times facing mankind today are unprecedented," he said. "Never before in history has there been such a deterioration in relations between men. While no human authority could have foreseen this terrible breakdown in morals, yet over nineteen centuries ago, Almighty God inspired Bible writers to foretell the coming of these critical times. He even had recorded what is the underlying cause of the present rash of lawless violence." Mr. Saia referred to the scripture at 2 Timothy 3: 1-5.

Mr. Crum said that the delegates had learned much during their three days of religious instructions and Christian fellowship and that the local delegates would be sharing this information with their neighbors through personal Bible studies.

WSCS Reception Is Held Hatton Home

Mrs. George Powner, Mrs. Ray Johnson, Mrs. Bruce Bowe and Mrs. Sally Butler, new members of the Pahokee Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service, were honored at the annual WSCS Membership Reception held at the home of Mrs. R. L. Hatton Monday night.

In the receiving line with Mrs. R. L. Hatton and Mrs. J. L. Reeves, WSCS president, who wore hibiscus corsages, were Mrs. Powner, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Bowe wearing gloriosa lily corsages. The fourth honoree, Mrs. Butler, was unable to be present. Mrs. John A. Briley, who was at the guest book, wore an orchid corsage. All of the corsages were made especially for the occasion by Mrs. Jess M. Elliott, past president of the Pahokee Garden Club.

The refreshments table, laid with a beautiful white applique cloth over pink, was centered with a large crystal punch bowl entwined with baby's breath and fern. Pink and white carnations, orchids, baby's breath and white tapers were used in the candle-lit-aperge arrangements at either end of the table. Soft background music was furnished by the Misses Sharon and Lynn Hatton.

After Mrs. Reeves, in a brief address, expressed her appreciation for the splendid spirit of cooperation shown by the membership during the past year, Mrs. John Hatton, program chairman, introduced Miss Lynn Hatton, vocalist, who gave a charming rendition of the song, "When You Walk Alone," accompanied by Miss Sharon Hatton at the piano.

Mrs. Frank (Barbie) Rosenberg, in charge of the WSCS baby gifts, read her own original poem, "A Mother's Duty," during the presentation of gifts to Rhonda Jo Powner, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Powner, and Randell Lewis Collins, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Collins, Jr. Mrs. James I. (Jimmy) Moore received a WSCS Life Membership Pin, with Mrs. E. D. Sims, Jr., making the presentation on behalf of WSCS.

MRS. RONALD W. HUDSPETH

Miss Gloria Miriam Smith Becomes Bride Of Ronald Wade Hudspeth In Church Wedding

Miss Gloria Miriam Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Kittrell Smith, Jr., Belle Glade, became the bride of Ronald Wade Hudspeth, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wesley Hudspeth, also of Belle Glade, at the Community Methodist Church, Saturday evening, May 1, 8 o'clock.

The Rev. W. R. Boland, pastor performed the double ring ceremony assisted by Mrs. Miriam L. Dulany, grandmother of the bride. Mrs. Gordon Corbin, organist played pre-nuptial music, also the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Milton O. Carpenter, baritone, who sang, "At Dawning," "I Love Thee," and "The Prayer Perfect."

The vows were exchanged at the altar which had a background of palms, two large baskets containing arrangements of white mums, white-pompoms and white gladioli. On the altar table was an arrangement of white Callalies, and either side of the table was a nine-branched candelabra holding long white tapers and twined with arlands of Southern Smilax and the reserved pews were marked with arrangements of white Shasta daisies and Southern Smilax.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a bodice of Alencon lace, boat neck, elbow length sleeves and self-covered buttons down the back of the bodice. A feature of the front skirt was a large panel of re-embroidered alencon lace. The back skirt was designed with a pleated bustle topped with a bow; the bustle fell gracefully into the lengthy train of the gown.

Her elbow-length veil of French illusion fell from an ornament of elevated organly leaves embroidered with seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a cascade bouquet of white Phalaenopsis orchids, Lilies-of-the-valley and Southern Smilax. She wore white gloves and carried an exquisite hand-made handkerchief of drawn-work and knitted lace, made by her maternal great-grandmother.

Miss Kathryn Jane Smith was her sister's Maid-of-honor. She wore a floor length gown of white eyelet embroidered organly over mint green taffeta, designed with fitted bodice, short sleeves, round neck, and a two-tiered bell-shaped skirt. She wore a headpiece of matching materials and color, covered with white Shasta daisies, from which fell a nose veil of mint green tulle. Green pumps and white gloves completed her costume. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow Shasta pompoms and Southern Smilax.

Allen Anne Smith, youngest sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. Bridesmaids included Miss Jo Ellen Hudspeth, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Kay Gilbert, Miss Linda Rabin, Miss Linda Berger of St. Petersburg; Miss Carol Smith, West Palm Beach; Miss Kathy Harrell, Tallahassee. Peggy Ruth Carpenter and Nancy Creech, cousins of the bride, were flower girls.

The maid-of-honor, bridesmaids and flower girls, all wore gowns designed identical to that of Miss Kathryn Jane Smith, the maid-of-honor. All wore hats identical to hers, and carried cascade arrangements of white Shasta pompoms and Southern Smilax, with the exception of the flower girl who carried white wicker baskets filled with yellow rose petals. All ten attendants wore a single strand of pearls given to them by the bride.

Little Philip Allen Dulany, Jr., cousin of the bride was the ring-bearer.

The bridegroom was attended by Fred Forsee, of Lakeland as best man. Ushers were Sydney Kittrell Smith, III, brother of the bride; John Evans and Steve Weeks, both cousins of the bride; Dale Matthews of Miami, cousin of the bridegroom; Ronnie Thomas, Fort Lauderdale; and Jim Chalanian.

The bride's mother wore a sheath of Peacock blue crepe with a full length lace coat of matching color. A blue net headpiece adorned with ribbon petals of the same color, blue peau d. sole pumps, white clutch bag and gloves. Her corsage was a white orchid.

The bridegroom's mother wore a two piece dress of American Beauty ribbon-lace, and a veiled pill-box hat of matching color; clutch bag and kid pumps of rose, white gloves and a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Dulany, the bride's maternal grandmother, wore a sheath of babyblue satin brocade, and white accessories. Mrs. Calvin A. Shive, the bride's maternal great-grandmother wore turquoise blue crepe and lace, with matching accessories. The bride's paternal grandmother, Mrs. Sydney Kittrell Smith, Sr. wore navy blue crepe and lace with navy blue accessories. All three had a white orchid corsage.

A reception was held in the Church Parlor immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was covered with a white swiss embroidered organly cloth over a white satin underskirt. The table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake with a pale green icing and topped with a white orchid. On either side of the cake there was a cherub pedestal holding arrangements of white shasta pompoms and garlanded with Southern Smilax. The punch table and matching cloth and accessories.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Dan Carpenter, Mrs. Duncan Padgett, Mrs. Ralph Grimes, great-aunts of the bride; Mrs. Vance Denton, Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. W. W. Weeks, Mrs. Barnes Smith, Mrs. Milton Carpenter, Mrs. R. Y. Creech, Mrs. Charles Fontaine, all cousins of the bride, Mrs. William A. Thiebaud and Miss Marilyn Rabin. Miss Margaret West greeted the guests and Mrs. Philip A. Dulany, aunt of the bride, presided at the bride's book. For traveling the bride wore a suit of baby-blue cotton pique with white trim, white straw hat, white pumps, bag, and gloves. She wore a corsage of three Skinner orchids.

Following a brief wedding trip the bridal couple are residing at 4000 Greenwood Drive in West Palm Beach.

The bride was graduated from Belle Glade High School in 1962 and is presently a senior of Florida State University, majoring in elementary education. She is now interning at Northmoore Elementary School in West Palm Beach. She is a member of Delta Gamma Sorority and of Kappa Delta Pi Education Honorary.

The bridegroom was graduated from Belle Glade High School in 1960 and from Florida State University with a B. S. degree in Business Administration in 1964. He is employed with the Retail Credit Company in West Palm Beach.
